Swieinfurt

Swieinfurt is a industrious city in Germany. In 1909, the skilled artisans and craftsmen who worked in the Schwenflurt. During these times, about 55,000 people were employed in the ball bearing industry. The industrial history of Schwenflurt is well-known, with the modern factory of Wilhelm Höpflinger and Engelbert Fries, which was to become the epitome of the ball bearing industry. The rapid development of the Schwenflurt industry led to the merging of the Kugellager Werkstatt, which was to become the Vereinigte Kugellager Werkstatt, into the world-class industrial city – up to this very day!

The industrial history of Schwenflurt is well-known, with the modern factory of Wilhelm Höpflinger and Engelbert Fries, which was to become the epitome of the ball bearing industry. The rapid development of the Schwenflurt industry led to the merging of the Kugellager Werkstatt, which was to become the Vereinigte Kugellager Werkstatt, into the world-class industrial city – up to this very day!

The “Free Imperial City” Schwenflurt

As the city became a centre of commerce and industry, the industry of Schwenflurt, which is known as the “Free Imperial City”, flourished. The industrial history of Schwenflurt is well-known, with the modern factory of Wilhelm Höpflinger and Engelbert Fries, which was to become the Vereinigte Kugellager Werkstatt, into the world-class industrial city – up to this very day!

Renowned Schwenflurt scholars and researchers

The names of Schwenflurt’s scientists, scholars, and researchers have been celebrated in the city’s libraries and museums.

Conferences and meetings

A discovery tour in Schwenflurt

Swieinfurt is a industrious city in Germany. In 1909, the skilled artisans and craftsmen who worked in the Schwenflurt. During these times, about 55,000 people were employed in the ball bearing industry. The industrial history of Schwenflurt is well-known, with the modern factory of Wilhelm Höpflinger and Engelbert Fries, which was to become the epitome of the ball bearing industry. The rapid development of the Schwenflurt industry led to the merging of the Kugellager Werkstatt, which was to become the Vereinigte Kugellager Werkstatt, into the world-class industrial city – up to this very day!

Parks, green spaces, woods and trails

Swieinfurt is a industrious city in Germany. In 1909, the skilled artisans and craftsmen who worked in the Schwenflurt. During these times, about 55,000 people were employed in the ball bearing industry. The industrial history of Schwenflurt is well-known, with the modern factory of Wilhelm Höpflinger and Engelbert Fries, which was to become the epitome of the ball bearing industry. The rapid development of the Schwenflurt industry led to the merging of the Kugellager Werkstatt, which was to become the Vereinigte Kugellager Werkstatt, into the world-class industrial city – up to this very day!

Helpful Information

- Language: English
- Website: www.schweinfurt.de
- Contact: Rathaus, Markt 1, Tel. 09721 510
- Parking: Free in the city centre and the convenient Schweinfurt Park, Post, Werneck 2, 50 €/adults plus entrance fee
- Restaurants: Numerous restaurants are award-winning and offer a wide range of international and regional dishes. Prices start at 10 €/person.
- Tourist Information: The Schweinfurt Tourist Information Centre is located at the Rathaus, Markt 1, Tel. 09721 510. Opening hours: Mon – Fri 9 a.m. – 5 p.m., Sat 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.
- Train Station: Schweinfurt is well-connected by train to major cities in Germany.
- Public Transport: Schweinfurt’s public transport is not just convenient, it’s also environmentally friendly, with electric buses and trams.
- Museums: Schweinfurt is home to several museums, including the Friedrich Fischer Museum and the Villa Bludenz. The museums are open Mon – Fri 10 a.m. – 6 p.m., Sat 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.
- Cultural Events: Schweinfurt hosts a variety of cultural events throughout the year, including festivals, concerts, and art exhibitions.
- Outdoor Activities: Schweinfurt is surrounded by beautiful countryside, with hiking and cycling routes available.
- Accommodation: Accommodation options range from budget hotels to luxury apartments.
- Language: English
- Website: www.schweinfurt.de
- Contact: Rathaus, Markt 1, Tel. 09721 510
- Parking: Free in the city centre and the convenient Schweinfurt Park, Post, Werneck 2, 50 €/adults plus entrance fee
- Restaurants: Numerous restaurants are award-winning and offer a wide range of international and regional dishes. Prices start at 10 €/person.
- Tourist Information: The Schweinfurt Tourist Information Centre is located at the Rathaus, Markt 1, Tel. 09721 510. Opening hours: Mon – Fri 9 a.m. – 5 p.m., Sat 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.
- Train Station: Schweinfurt is well-connected by train to major cities in Germany.
- Public Transport: Schweinfurt’s public transport is not just convenient, it’s also environmentally friendly, with electric buses and trams.
- Museums: Schweinfurt is home to several museums, including the Friedrich Fischer Museum and the Villa Bludenz. The museums are open Mon – Fri 10 a.m. – 6 p.m., Sat 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.
- Cultural Events: Schweinfurt hosts a variety of cultural events throughout the year, including festivals, concerts, and art exhibitions.
- Outdoor Activities: Schweinfurt is surrounded by beautiful countryside, with hiking and cycling routes available.
- Accommodation: Accommodation options range from budget hotels to luxury apartments.